SARSAPARILLA.

WILKINSON'S (LATE BRIDGE'S)

ESSENCE OR FLUID EXTRACT OF RED JAMAICA SARSAPARILLA

Is appreciated for its Purity and marked superiority; daily prescribed by the Faculty for Impurities of the Blood, Affections of the Liver, Constitutional Debility, Attenuation of Body, as an Alterative Medicine at the changes of the seasons, and for freeing the system from the effects of Mercury. In India and the Colonies it is extensively used to prevent taking Complaints incidental to tropical climates, and as a renovator of the System after Sickness, invaluable.

"A superior preparation that may always be relied on."—SIR ASTLEY COOPER.

"We are in every respect satisfied with it."—LANCET.

"We recommend 'Bridge's Sarsaparilla' as the best."—MEDICAL REVIEW.

"Lastly, in consequence of much debility, &c., subsequent to cholera, I have freely used 'Bridge's Sarsaparilla' myself with complete benefit and success."—J. POST, M.R.C.S.

Sold in Pints, Half-pints, & Quarter-pints. One pint is equal to one gallon of the ordinary preparation.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.—The Public are cautioned against cheap preparations of Sarsaparilla, which, instead of being what they profess, are nothing more than a decoction of common herbs, sweetened with molasses, and flavoured with American winter green. The genuine has "THOS. WILKINSON (late BRIDGE), No. 270, Regent Street, London," engraved on each bottle.

QUINTESSANCE OF JAMAICA GINGER & CAMOMILE.

Ginger has long been deservedly known as an excellent domestic medicine, and, combined with Camomile, it is the most efficient Stomachic Tonic known; for whilst the Ginger relieves the stomach from Distension and Flatulency, arising from impaired digestion, the Camomile strengthens the coats of the stomach, and by that means gives it a healthy and invigorating tone. So highly concentrated is this preparation (a few drops being a dose), it is unimpaired by age or climate, and consequently well adapted for exportation. Full directions are enclosed with each bottle for the following complaints: Flatulency, or restoring tone to the Stomach, Cholera, Dysentery, &c. Gout, Rheumatism, Spasms, when the stomach feels distended after eating, for assisting digestion, Nervous Affections, &c., &c. Sold in Bottles, $\frac{1}{2}$ pints, $\frac{1}{4}$ pints, and $\frac{1}{8}$ pints.

AROMATIC TINCTURE OF QUINOIDINE,

For the Prevention of Fever, Intermittent or Remittent, Ague, and other effects of Malaria.

This Preparation is proved by practical experience to be superior to Sulphate of Quinine, Amorphous Quinine, or any preparation of Chinchona Bark, as an Antiperiodic against Fevers, and as a Tonic, and also a Prophylactic.

No person exposed to the influence or predisposing cause of fevers, should be without it, for if taken in small doses daily, the system will become so thoroughly impregnated with its principles, as to be rendered proof against all attacks of Contagion or Malaria.

It may be mentioned that those who during the Campaign in the Crimea daily took a small quantity, passed entirely unharmed through the raking fire of Fever and Dysentery that thinned the ranks around them. Sold in Bottles, $\frac{1}{2}$ pints and $\frac{1}{4}$ pints.

BRONCHIO-THORACIC LOZENGES.

These Lozenges are prepared from the recipe of one of the most eminent Physicians of the day, and possess the peculiar power of lessening the viscosity of the saliva, increasing the fluidity of the mucous, and thereby relieving the Bronchial Tubes (or Air Passages) of that congestive material, which being produced by morbid action, diminishes their calibre, and is in fact, the entire cause of all the evils accompanying Catarrhal Affections.

THIRD ANNUAL PUBLICATION.

Now published, price 10s. 6d.

THE STATESMAN'S YEAR-BOOK.

A STATISTICAL, GENEALOGICAL, AND HISTORICAL ACCOUNT OF THE STATES AND SOVEREIGNS OF THE CIVILIZED WORLD FOR THE YEAR 1866.

By FREDERICK MARTIN.

The Statesman's Year-book for 1866, by FREDERICK MARTIN, contains a vast amount of new and original matter, in addition to the revised and corrected statistics of all nations given in the last edition, and described by the Times as "a chart and calendar of the progress of the world." Prefixed to the new edition are a series of tables of comparative statistics, showing, at a glance, the public revenue and expenditure of the leading States of the world, the density of population, the cost of government, the burthen of the public debts, the maintenance of the reigning families, the strength and cost of the standing Armies, and a variety of other interesting statistics. The chief markets of the United Kingdom are likewise illustrated in this series, showing the consumption of British produce, per head of population, among the chief nations on the globe.

It may truly be asserted that there is not a work in existence containing the same amount of statistical, historical, and biographical information as the Statesman's Year-book, or, to quote a notice in the Spectator—"There is not another publication containing such an analysis of the collected blue-books of the world."

"Readers feel in this book the confidence which attaches to the writing of a man who has great practical acquaintance with the matter of which he writes, and lawyers will agree that it fully satisfies the standard of professional accuracy."—Saturday Review.

The Roman and the Teuton.

A Series of Lectures delivered before the University of Cambridge.

By the Rev. CHARLES KINGSLEY, M.A., Rector of Eversley, and Professor of Modern History in the University of Cambridge. 8vo. cloth, 12s.

The Coal Question:

An Inquiry concerning the Progress of the Nation, and the Probable Exhaustion of our Coal Mines.

By W. STANLEY JEVONS, M.A., Fellow of the Statistical Society. 8vo. cloth, price 10s. 6d.

"We dislike Mr. Jevons' conclusions, because we fear they are true. Our dislike, however, does not blind us to the fact that never before were science, economy, and commerce presented in so pleasing a form. The style is charming—as lucid as Adam Smith's, as cogent as Paley's, and as fascinating as Macaulay's."—Liverpool Daily Post.

"The importance of this subject cannot be over-estimated, and Mr. Jevons displays a wise and philosophical spirit in so arranging his materials as to simplify, while they invite methodical debate."—Manchester Examiner.

HISTORY

OF THE

OFFICES OF THE SECRETARIES OF STATE.

1253 to 1866.

THE earliest mention of a Secretary to The Sovereign occurs in the 37th year of the reign of Henry III, 1253.

There was only one Principal Secretary of State until the 30th year of the reign of Henry VIII, 1539, when the number was increased to two, both being of equal rank and authority.

Upon the union with Scotland, in the 6th year of the reign of Queen Anne, 1708, a third Principal Secretary of State was added, viz., for Scotch Affairs, but this appointment ceased in January, 1746.

In the 8th year of the reign of George III, January 20, 1768, a Principal Secretary of State for the American or Colonial Department was added, but this appointment was abolished in 1782.

At the time when only two Principal Secretaries of State existed, the duties were divided between the North and South Departments—the Northern Department, or Province, included the Low Countries, Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Poland, Russia &c.; and the Southern Department, or Province, France, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Portugal, and Turkey, &c.

In the 17th year of the reign of George III, March 27, 1782, the terms “Northern” and “Southern” were discontinued; when the duties were divided between the “Home” and “Foreign” Departments—the affairs of Ireland and the Colonies devolving upon the elder of the two Secretaries.

In the 29th year of the reign of George III, July 17, 1794, a Principal Secretary of State for War was appointed; and the business of the Colonies, which had hitherto been carried on at the Home Department, was transferred to that Secretary, March 17, 1801.

In the 17th year of the reign of Victoria, June 12, 1854, a Fourth Principal Secretary of State was appointed, when the business of the War Department was separated from the Colonial Department.

In the 22nd year of the reign of Victoria, September 2, 1858, on the abolition of the East India Company's Charter, a Fifth Principal Secretary of State was appointed for the Affairs of India.

There are now Five Secretaries of State, viz., for the Home, Foreign, Colonial War, and India Departments.

LONDON GAZETTE OFFICE (ST. MARTIN'S LANE).

The London Gazette is the only official organ of the Government for notices of Appointments, Promotions, &c. The Gazette is published every Tuesday and Friday, and was first established at Oxford, in 1665, when the Court removed to that city, during the Great Plague of London. It was then called the Oxford Gazette, but on the return of the Court to London it was called the London Gazette. The first number of the London Gazette was No. 24 of the Oxford Gazette.—(CUNNINGHAM'S Handbook for London.)

And in his despatch dated Head Quarters, Camp, Cawnpore, December 12, 1857, he stated, "When I passed the camp and went forward on the Calpee road, Major-General Mansfield was desired by me to make arrangements for the attack of the position called the Subadar's Tank, which extended round the left rear of the enemy's position in the old cantonments;" and, "I have a particular pleasure in again bringing to your Lordship's notice the zeal and great ability with which Major-General W. R. Mansfield, Chief of the Staff, has conducted the very important duties of his high position, and my obligations to him for the most valuable assistance he has afforded me during the whole of the recent operations. I desire also to call your Lordship's attention to the able and distinguished manner in which he conducted the troops placed under his orders, after the enemy's centre had been divided, to the attack of their strong position at the Subadar's Tank, and to recommend to your Lordship's favourable consideration the names of the officers who assisted him." Major-General Mansfield was slightly wounded on the occasion. In the General Order, dated December 23, 1857, the Governor-General in Council very cordially concurred in the praise so justly bestowed by the Commander-in-Chief on Major-General Mansfield, Chief of the Staff, and offered his cordial thanks for his gallantry and good service to the State; and added, it would be his pleasing duty to take the first opportunity of bringing his merits to the favourable notice of Her Majesty's Government, and of the Honourable Court of Directors. It is impossible for me to praise this officer too highly, or to recommend him sufficiently to the protection of your Lordship and of the Government." The Governor-General, in the Gazette of April 5, 1858, offered his hearty acknowledgments to Major-General Mansfield, of whose eminent services the Commander-in-Chief speaks with well-merited commendation in his despatches, giving an account of the retaking of Lucknow. Mansfield, K.C.B., the Chief of the Staff. As it seems probable that active operations will now cease, I have the greatest pleasure in seizing the opportunity of recording my grateful sense of what I owe to this officer, and of recommending him in the strongest possible manner for the favourable consideration of your Excellency. Sir W. Mansfield executed all the details of the various operations which I had thought it advisable to order, with the greatest ability, and showed the most unwearied diligence in directing, as was necessary, the simultaneous movements of so many bodies of troops scattered often in small detachments over a very great extent of country; and his care and attention have in a great measure tended to bring about the very rapid and favourable results which have been obtained, and the course of which has been already related." On that vessel paying off in February 1836, joined Colonel Light, the first Surveyor-General of South Australia, as an Assistant Surveyor. Was the first in what is now called Port Adelaide, entering it by the northern channel when searching for a harbour in St. Vincent's Gulf, while holding the office of Marine Surveyor under Colonel Gawler. Sounded and surveyed Lake Alexandria, and finally succeeded in taking a vessel (a cutter of six feet draught) in by the sea mouth of Lower Murray, to, what was named by the Governor, Port Pullen, thus opening a water communication with the sea and interior by the River Murray. About the middle of 1841 left Adelaide, and arrived in England in April 1842, touching at Moulmein and Cape on way home. In June 1842 re-entered the service as Midshipman, and was appointed to the Columbia, about to proceed to the Bay of Fundy, to survey it under the direction of the late Admiral Owen, and was named as one of his assistants. In November 1846 was made a Lieutenant; and on the Columbia paying off, in February 1848, was named for the Plover, the first ship sent in search of Sir John Franklin. In consequence of her not coming into Panama, where he was sent to await her arrival, he did not join her until July 15, 1849, in Kotzebue Sound, Arctic America, and ten days after, at midnight, left her, in command of the boats, for the mouth of the River Mackenzie on search of the coast of Arctic America. Entered the Mackenzie on August 23, and commenced the ascent of the river on August 29, arriving at Fort Simpson, one of the Hudson Bay Company's posts, October 3, where he wintered with a portion of his boats' crews, fourteen in number; the rest distributed over the country—some at Fort Macpherson, on the Peel, others on the Great Slave Lake (the extremes not less than 1,000 miles apart)—for subsistence on the ice, breaking up, and cleaning out of the rivers. In June 1850, with his re-united party, he left Fort Simpson, with the fur traders' brigade of boats, for York Factory. When on the Great Slave Lake, he met a despatch from England, ordering him to the coast again in search of Franklin's expedition, but to proceed easterly from the mouth of the Mackenzie as far as Cape Bathurst, and then strike off to the northward. This same despatch brought him a commission as Commander, bearing date January 1850. This second expedition failed, like others, in as far as nothing was successful in the main point; and after enduring many hardships reached Fort Simpson again on October 5, 1850, the ice making fast, and often seriously impeding their progress to their winter quarters. In June 1851 he again left Fort Simpson for York Factory, Hudson Bay, passing through the interior of North America, by its rivers and portages, and finally, on August 28, reached York Factory; here embarking on September 9, in the Hudson Bay Company's ship, and arrived in England in October 1851. In February 1853 he was appointed to command the North Star, one of the squadron under Sir E. Belcher, and the only one that returned to England out of the squadron of five, except the Resolute, one of the abandoned ships; but she was picked up only a year after, and brought to England in 1856. The North Star was paid off in October 1854, and just one month after he was appointed to the command of the Perseverance. Her beginning was disastrous, falling over in the Dock at Woolwich, when he, and what men he had entered, were transferred to the Falcon, sloop of war, of 17 guns. In June 1855 he left Spithead to join Admiral Baynes' squadron, and served in the Baltic in 1855 and 1856; the latter period, with the advance squadron, under Captain R. B. Watson. Formed one of the ships of the Starboard Division at the Naval Review at Spithead. Was made a Captain, May 10, 1856. Studied at the Naval College, Portsmouth, for the twelvemonth allowed by the Admiralty. Was appointed to the command of the Cyclops, September 15, 1857. In the course of the service he was sounding the Red Sea for telegraphic cable. Was present at the Massacre of Jeddah; was ordered to bombard the town; was Commissioner for the Settlement of the Affairs at that place, from July 31 till November 23, 1857, when he received orders that in consequence of his presence being required elsewhere, he was superseded by Mr. A. Walne, late Consul at Cairo, and as soon as he handed over all documents, &c., proceeded to sea in pursuance of orders from the Admiralty to carry on the soundings for the telegraphic cable. ## REGULATIONS CONCERNING THE PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

Act 17, annexed to the TREATY OF VIENNA, of June 9, 1815.

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:—

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns: that of Chargés d’Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios, only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence on their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

Conferences of the Five Powers at Aix-la-Chapelle. (Ministers Resident.

PROTOCOL, November 21, 1818.

In order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d’Affaires.

REGULATIONS FOR THE EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES BEFORE THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSIONERS FOR APPOINTMENTS IN AND UNDER THE FOREIGN OFFICE.

(In force, January 1866.)

(Approved by the Earl of Clarendon, January 1, 1856, and revised by Earl Russell, December 8, 1864.)

1st. That they can write a good bold hand, forming each letter distinctly.

2nd. That they can write, quickly and correctly, English and French from dictation.

3rd. That they understand French well; the test of their doing so to be that they can make an accurate and good translation of any French paper.

4th. If all the competitors express a wish to be examined in French composition and French conversation, as further evidence, beyond what is afforded by an accurate and good translation, that they understand French well, they will be permitted to be examined in and to obtain marks for those accomplishments.

5th. That they can make a correct and clear précis or abstract of any set of papers placed in their hands.

6th. ## For ATTACHES in HER MAJESTY'S DIPLOMATIC SERVICE, July 17, 1865.

LORD RUSSELL having seen occasion, after an experience of nearly three years, to revise the Regulations for the examination of Attachés in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service which were issued on the 15th September, 1862 (page 201), has deemed it advisable to amend those Regulations, and to lay down in lieu thereof the following Regulations, which will take effect from the present date.

Lord Russell considers it proper that the junior members of the Diplomatic Service should prove their competency, in all cases, in two Examinations by the Civil Service Commissioners.

In the first examination, which candidates for Attachéships must be prepared to undergo within three months from the date of their nomination, they must satisfy the examiners in regard to the following points:—

1. Orthography.
2. Handwriting.
3. General intelligence.
4. Précis writing.
5. That they are well grounded in Latin grammar, and are able to construe and parse a portion of some good classical Latin author, and to give the derivation of words.*

6. That they are acquainted with the first four rules of arithmetic and decimal fractions, as given with examples in Colenso's Arithmetic, and with the first book of Euclid.

7. That they have a general knowledge of geography.

8. That they have a general knowledge of French grammar, and can translate correctly from French into English.

9. That they have a general knowledge of German grammar.

10. That they have a general knowledge of the constitutional history of England, to be acquired from Blackstone's "Commentaries" (Ker's Edition, 1862), and Hallam's "Constitutional History of England."

11. That they have a general knowledge of the political history of Europe, and of the United States of North America, from the Treaty of Paris, in 1815, to the Treaty of Villafranca, in 1860, comprising an acquaintance with the most important international transactions during that period.

In the second examination, which must be undergone in the interval between the grant of a commission as Third Secretary and that of a commission as Second

Secretary, candidates will be exempted from re-examination in the 1st, 2nd, 5th, 6th, 7th, and 10th subjects in which they have passed in their previous examinations; but they must satisfy the examiners in regard to the following points:—

1. General intelligence, as evinced by the manner in which they acquire themselves, and specifically by the quickness they may show in seizing the points in papers read by them, or read over to them, once or twice.

2. Précis writing.

3. That they have a general knowledge of French grammar; that they can converse fluently in that language on ordinary topics; and can translate correctly from English into French, as well as from French into English.

4. That they have a knowledge of German grammar, and can translate correctly from German into English; or if the candidates, between their first and second examinations, have not resided a reasonable time, twelve months for instance, in Germany, they may, if they desire it, substitute in their second examination, for a general knowledge of German grammar and for correct translation from German into English, the same qualifications in some other foreign language besides French.

5. That they have a general knowledge of the political history of Europe, and of the United States of North America, from the Treaty of Versailles, in 1783, to the Treaty of Villafranca, in 1860, comprising the most important international transactions during that period.

6. That they have a general knowledge of political economy, to be acquired from Adam Smith's "Wealth of Nations," and Mill's "Political Economy."

7. That they have a general knowledge of Maritime and International Law, to be acquired from Vattel, Wheaton's "Elements of International Law," and the first volume of Kent's "Commentaries."

8. They must satisfy the examiners, by submitting to them a general report on the commerce of the several countries in which they have resided, and on their political relations with other countries, that they are competent to draw up such a report: and they must be prepared to answer any questions put to them by the examiners within the limits of such report.

Candidates for Attachéships, on presenting themselves for examination, must have completed the 21st year of their age and not exceeded the 26th.

Foreign Office, July 17, 1865.

* Candidates who have passed the first public examination in Classics at one of the Universities in Great Britain or Ireland will be exempted from being examined in Latin; but candidates claiming this exemption must, on going up for examination, exhibit to the Civil Service Commissioners a certificate from the duly constituted authorities, examiners, or others, as the case may be, in such University that they have passed the first public examination in Classics, in whatever manner that examination may have been conducted, and to whatever point directed.

5. Commissions as 3rd Secretaries to be granted to Unpaid Attachés on completion of their Probation.

Commissions as 3rd Secretaries will also be granted under Her Majesty's Sign-Manual to persons now serving as Unpaid Attachés, or who shall hereafter be appointed Unpaid Attachés, on the fulfilment of the conditions applicable to such persons, as specified in the present Regulations.

It is clearly to be understood that the aforesaid Commissions of 2nd and 3rd Secretaries will not imply appointment to any particular Embassy or Mission; but the holders thereof will be subject to the same conditions and liabilities as to removal from one Mission to another, at the discretion of the Secretary of State, as those to which Attachés of all classes are now liable.

Secretaries of the 2nd and 3rd Classes may be indiscriminately attached, either to an Embassy or to a Mission; and the circumstance of having been attached in either of the above capacities to an Embassy will not preclude transfers in the same capacity to a Mission. Moreover, there may be more than one Secretary of either of the above classes attached, at the pleasure of the Secretary of State, to any Embassy or Mission.

6. Number of 2nd Secretaries; and Salaries.

There will be a fixed number of 2nd Secretaries, determined by the number of 1st and 2nd Paid Attachés at the date of the issue of these Regulations.

The Salaries of 2nd Secretaries will be fixed at the same rates as those now assigned to 1st and 2nd Paid Attachés in the respective Embassies and Missions; it being understood that such rates have reference to the character of the Embassy or Mission, and not to the services of the 2nd Secretaries, who may be removed, without claim to compensation, from an Embassy or Mission where the rates are higher, to an Embassy or Mission where the rates are lower.

7. Rules as to Pensions of the 4th Class.

In virtue of Her Majesty's Commissions, the service of 2nd and 3rd Secretaries will count for their pensions, under the Act of 2 & 3 Wm. IV, cap. 116,† from the date of the issue of their first Commission; but the amount of pension to be assigned to them will be calculated, so long as they are eligible for a pension of the 4th Class only, for each year that has elapsed since the date of their first Commission, at one-thirtieth part of the last salary of which they were in receipt at the time of the pension being granted; provided that no pension shall continue to be issued to a person not incapacitated by ill-health, medically certified, who may decline active service before he has reached the 60th year of his age, after which age no person shall be required to serve as 2nd or 3rd Secretary.

8. Provision for the Transfer of the Junior Members of the Diplomatic Service from one post to another; and Payment of their Expenses of Removal.

2nd or 3rd Secretaries, and Attachés, as a general rule, will not be employed for more than 2 years consecutively, irrespective of the periods during which they may have been absent on leave, in the same Embassy or Mission, unless for special public reasons. Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, 2nd and 3rd Secretaries, and Attachés, will, on their first appointment, or on any subsequent removal by reason of promotion or otherwise on public grounds, receive such an allowance as shall be sufficient to cover the actual expense of their personal journey by land, or the actual amount paid for their personal passage by sea, either from England to their post, or from one foreign post to another; and in the case of Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, and of 2nd Secretaries, a similar allowance for one servant, if they have one; but no allowance will be made under the head of subsistence during a journey by land; neither will any allowance be made for the expense of the journey or subsistence of the families of any such Secretaries or Attachés. In the event of a passage being afforded to Secretaries or Attachés on board of one of Her Majesty's ships of war, the allowance made will be in conformity with the Admiralty Regulations.

No allowance will be made to the Junior Members of the Diplomatic Service for journeys undertaken for their own convenience, in pursuance of leave of absence; but in all such cases the expense of the journeys from and on returning to their posts will be exclusively at their own charge.

It is understood, moreover, that in the case of any journey of which the expense is to be allowed, Secretaries or Attachés, unless specially excused from doing so, will be bound to take charge of despatches, if required; and, in that case, they will be expected to perform the journey without delaying on the road.

9. Interchange of Employment between 2nd and 3rd Secretaries and Attachés, and Junior Clerks in the Foreign Office.

The Secretary of State will, should he see occasion, for the advantage of the public service, allow 2nd and 3rd Secretaries, and Attachés, to interchange for a time their duties with Clerks of the three Junior Classes in the Foreign Office; the several parties being bound, for the whole period through which the interchange extends, in every respect to perform the duties and to submit to the obligations attaching to the situation which they may temporarily occupy.

The Secretary of State will, moreover, if he sees reason to do so, direct such temporary interchange of duties to be made, irrespective of the wishes of the parties, between Second or Third Secretaries, or Attachés, and Clerks in the Foreign Office; or he will direct such persons to be employed for a time, at home or abroad, without any interchange, making in either case such an allowance to the parties as he may consider just and reasonable. In the event of any Attaché being so employed in the Foreign Office, the period, over and above the 6 months which are obligatory as stated in section 2, during which he shall be actually employed in the Foreign Office, shall reckon towards the 3 years during which he is by these Regulations to reside at an Embassy or Mission abroad.

In the case of temporary interchanges between Secretaries and Clerks, they will respectively rank, during the period for which the interchange shall last, after the Junior in the classes of Secretaries or Clerks to which each of them belongs, the Clerk receiving an acting appointment as Secretary of such class. The same principle will apply in cases of permanent interchange.

If a Clerk in the Foreign Office should be permanently transferred to the Diplomatic Service, or should be temporarily employed with a Special, or with an Ordinary, Embassy or Mission, he will receive a Commission or an acting appointment, as the case may be, as Secretary of the 2nd or 3rd Class, according to the length of his service in the Foreign Office; but he will, as regards others then in the same class, enter it as the Junior.

10. Deductions to be made from Salaries of Heads of Missions on Leave of Absence.

With a view to relieve Heads of Missions on leave of absence on private grounds, the deduction to be made from their salaries will in future be limited, for a period not exceeding 60 days from the date of their departure from their posts, to the sum required to provide for the allowances of the Acting Chargés d'Affaires according to the present Regulations; on the expiration of which period the deduction will be at the rate of one-half of their salaries. Such period of 60 days may either be one of 60 consecutive days, or of 60 days occurring at intervals in the course of one year beginning on the 1st of January.

11. Allowances during War or Interruption of Relations.

Should an Ambassador, Minister, or Secretary, by reason of war or other interruptions of Diplomatic relations, be withdrawn from active service before his services shall have qualified him for a Diplomatic pension of the class under which he would otherwise come, the Secretary of State will, as he may see fit, assign to any such person a temporary allowance calculated on the rate of pension assigned to the class to which he belongs, regard being had to the length and general character of his services; such allowance being, however, strictly subject to the condition in regard to employment specified in the 7th section of the Act of 2 & 3 Wm. IV, c. 116.*

12. Date at which present Regulations shall take effect.

The foregoing Regulations shall take effect from the 1st day of October, 1862; but Unpaid Attachés appointed previously to the 1st of January, 1861, will be allowed until the 1st of July, 1863, to undergo their second examination, according to the Regulations now in force, and if, on such second examination, they obtain their certificates, they will retain their present Precedence, but not otherwise.

All persons nominated as Attachés subsequently to the date of the present Regulations will be subject to the provisions as to examination therein contained.

The condition of employment for 6 months in the Foreign Office (§ 2) will not be enforced with regard to Unpaid Attachés in the service abroad at the date of these Regulations; but such Unpaid Attachés must have passed both examinations under the existing Regulations, must have actually resided for a period of 3 years at one or more of Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions abroad, must have completed 4 years from the time of their entering the service, and must be provided with the certificate from the Head of the Mission under whom they have last served, specified in Clause 3 of these Regulations, before they can receive a Commission as Secretary of the 3rd Class, or the Salary at the rate of £150 a-year assigned to that Class. Those persons who continue in the service, or who shall hereafter enter the service, as Unpaid Attachés, will be denominated "Attachés."
(Signed) RUSSELL.

Foreign Office, September 15, 1862.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN ORDERS AND MEDALS.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force. (1855.)

FOREIGN ORDERS.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Service before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previous to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order he will at any future time be allowed to accept the decoration of a higher class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign service, or in the service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV, on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

FOREIGN MEDALS.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy, for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

CLARENDON.

Foreign Office, May 10, 1855.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING PASSPORTS.

1. Applications for Foreign Office Passports must be made in writing; and inclosed in a cover addressed to "The Chief Clerk, Foreign Office, London," or to an Agent at one of the specified outposts, with the word "Passport" conspicuously written on the cover.

2. The charge on the issue of a passport, whatever number of persons may be named in it, is two shillings, which sum includes the stamp duty of sixpence.

3. Foreign Office Passports are granted only to British-born subjects, or to such foreigners as have become naturalized either by Act of Parliament or by a Certificate of Naturalization granted by the Secretary of State for the Home Department. When the party is a "Naturalized British subject" he will be so designated in his passport; and if his certificate of naturalization be dated subsequently to the 24th of August, 1850, and previously to the 1st of August, 1858, his passport will be marked as good for one year only; or should the certificate be dated subsequently to the 1st of August, 1858, his passport will in that case be marked as good for six months only: but this regulation will not preclude any person whom it affects from obtaining, at any future period, on his producing his old passport, a fresh passport for a further limited period, without being required to pay a fresh charge.

4. A Foreign Office passport granted to a British-born subject, or to a "Naturalized British subject" whose certificate of naturalization is dated previously to August 24, 1850, is not limited in point of time, but is available for any time, or for any number of journeys to the continent, if countersigned afresh by the Ministers or Consuls of the countries which the bearer intends to visit; but a passport granted to a "Naturalized British subject" whose certificate is dated subsequently to the 24th of August, 1850, is only available for the period for which the passport was originally granted.

5. Passports are issued at the Foreign Office, between the hours of eleven and four, on the day following that on which the application for the passport has been received at the Foreign Office; but the passports will be issued at the outposts immediately on application, accompanied by the production of a certificate of identity, within such hours as may be fixed with regard to the convenience of persons desirous of embarking for the Continent.

6. Passports are granted to all persons either known to the Secretary of State or recommended to him by some person who is known to him; or upon the application of any Banking Firm established in London, or in any other part of the United Kingdom; or upon the production of a certificate of identity signed by any Mayor, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Minister of Religion, Physician, Surgeon, Solicitor, or Notary, resident in the United Kingdom.

7. A passport cannot be sent by the Foreign Office, or by an agent, at an outpost, to a person already abroad; such person, being a British-born subject, should apply for one to the nearest British mission or consulate.

8. Foreign Office Passports must be countersigned at the mission in London, or at some consulate in the United Kingdom of the Government of the country which the bearer of the passport intends to visit.*

Foreign Office, February 5, 1866.

* It is requisite that the bearer of every passport granted by the Foreign Office should sign his passport before he sends it to be used at any foreign mission or consulate in England; without such signature either the visa may be refused, or the validity of the passport questioned abroad. And travellers who may have any intention of visiting the Russian Empire at any time in the course of their travels abroad are particularly and earnestly advised not to quit England without having had their passports used at the Russian Consulate in London; but there is no necessity for the visa of the Austrian, Bavarian, Belgian, Danish, Dutch, French, Hanoverian, Italian, Prussian, Saxon, Spanish, Swedish and Norwegian, or Wurtemberg Diplomatic or Consular Agents resident in the United Kingdom.

DIPLOMATIC PENSIONS.

(1.) Third Report from the Select Committee of the House of Commons, on the Income and Expenditure of the United Kingdom.—June 26, 1828. (Extract.)

Pensions to Foreign Ministers.

THE Committee think it right to present to the House, in this Report, some observations on the subject of Pensions to Foreign Ministers while unemployed, these having been regulated by the Act 50 Geo. 3 [1817], relating to superannuations, to which they have made such frequent reference in this Report.

These pensions form a charge on the third class of the Civil List. The following clause of the Civil List Act of 22 Geo. 3, cap. 82, sec. 18, [1782,] explains the manner in which these pensions were granted, till they were placed under the regulations of the 50 Geo. 3, cap. 117, [1810.]

And whereas it hath been usual that persons who have served the Crown in Foreign Courts have, after the expiration of their service, at His Majesty's pleasure, received such proportion of their former appointments as to His Majesty hath seemed expedient. Be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained relative to pensions shall be construed to extend to such allowance, either at present or in future, provided the said persons do not severally enjoy some place or other profit from the Crown to the amount of the pension usually allowed in such cases: provided that the list of the said pensions shall be laid, in the manner before mentioned, before Parliament.

The names of those persons who receive pensions are contained in the Appendix to this Report.

By the Act of the 50 Geo. 3, it is provided: "That no pension shall be granted to any person on account of having served the Crown in Foreign Courts within less than ten years from the date of his first appointment on such service, during which time he shall have served not less than 3 years; and no such allowance shall exceed 2,000*l.* a-year, and every such allowance shall abate if such person be appointed to any civil office or employment under the Crown of equal or greater amount, and shall also be subject to a proportionate abatement if the value of any such office or employment shall be less than the amount of such allowance."

As the Act of the 56 Geo. 3, cap. 46, sec. 4, [1816,] provides that the savings which may be made in the third class of the Civil List shall be carried to the account of the Consolidated Fund, the public have a direct interest in keeping this branch of expenditure within its proper limits. It appears, from the return in the Appendix, that the sum paid on account of Diplomatic Pensions during the year 1827 was upwards of 57,000*l.* This sum is considered by your Committee as exceeding the just amount which ought to be assigned to the unemployed Diplomatic servants of the Crown; and they, therefore, recommend that the annual sum allotted to such pensions should in future be limited to 40,000*l.* in the whole, and that, until the present amount shall be brought within that limit, it should not be competent to the Crown to grant more than 2,000*l.* in any one year, excluding from this limitation any pension which, having been once granted and afterwards suspended by the acceptance of some other appointment, may again come into course of payment.

It appears further necessary to lay down more precise regulations with respect to the periods of service which shall in future give a title to such a provision. Your Committee, therefore, recommend:

1. That no person whatever shall be entitled to receive a Diplomatic Pension until the expiration of fifteen years from the date of his first commission, nor unless he shall have actually served ten years.
2. That no person shall be entitled to a pension of the first class (2,000*l.* a year) unless he shall have actually served three years as Ambassador at some Foreign Court.
3. That pensions to Envoys and Ministers Plenipotentiary at the greater Courts shall not exceed 1,500*l.* a year, and shall not be granted until after five years' residence in that capacity at a Foreign Court.
4. That pensions to Envoys and Ministers Plenipotentiary at other Courts, and to Ministers, shall not exceed 1,000*l.* a year after a similar period of residence.
5. That pensions in the remaining class shall not exceed 800*l.* a year, under the same conditions as to time of residence.

It will be proper, further, to provide that all Diplomatic Pensions shall be held subject to the condition of forfeiture in case of refusal to proceed to any mission of equal or higher rank, and of suspension or abatement in any case in which the party receiving the pension may be appointed to any other office of profit under the Crown.

In addition to these restrictions, the Committee were desirous of checking, by some positive rules, a practice which has prevailed to a considerable extent—of giving retired pensions to Diplomatic servants having sufficient private fortunes; but finding, on mature consideration, great difficulty in laying down general regulations applicable to all cases, they think it better to content themselves with expressing their marked disapprobation of this practice. It could never, under any circumstances, be justifiable; but, if the whole fund be limited, as above recommended, to 40,000*l.*, the Committee trust that this abuse will be prevented by a consideration of the evil and injustice of burdening the fund with improper charges of this description, to the prejudice of those who have equal claims with respect to their service, and better claims in respect to their pecuniary circumstances

(2.) Report from the Select Committee of the House of Commons on Civil Government Charges.—October, 1831. (Extract.)

THE next branch of Expenditure which your Committee proceeded to examine was that of the Diplomatic Service; and on this subject their inquiries were aided by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, who attended for the purpose of giving any explanations that might be required from his Department; but before they applied themselves to the examination of the details of this Estimate, it appeared a matter of serious consideration to examine in what manner it might be most consistent with the Public Interest to provide for the Diplomatic Servants of the Crown. Hitherto this branch of Expenditure has been borne on the Civil List: and at the Accession of His present Majesty it stood as follows: £196,950 for the effective and non-effective Diplomacy.

The Select Committee of 1831, having excluded this charge from the Civil List, the first point to be decided by your Committee was, whether the Diplomatic Expenditure should be hereafter charged on the Consolidated Fund or should be voted annually in Supply. In either case, the expenses of Foreign Missions would be brought under the full knowledge and control of Parliament; but it appeared to your Committee, on deliberation, that it was not expedient to introduce charges of this nature into the Annual Estimates. Your Committee therefore recommend, that a provision should be made for this Service, chargeable on the Consolidated Fund. This arrangement will ensure, that all savings which may be made shall at once go to the Public Account, and will enable Parliament at all times to take cognizance of, and pronounce a judgment upon, any Diplomatic Expenditure which may properly be made the subject of inquiry or animadversion. In order to afford an additional security against abuse, it is the opinion of your Committee, that a statement of these Accounts should be annually laid before the House

(Diplomatic.)

These arrangements appear to your Committee to be at once calculated to protect the Public interests in the Foreign relations of the State, and to guard against improvident or lavish expenditure.

The amount which is recommended for the future effective Diplomatic Expenditure of the Country, exclusive of Pensions to retired Ministers, is £140,000, which not only effects the reduction recommended by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs in November, 1830, but carries those reductions still further.

This Estimate also makes provision for four new Missions, which the state of Europe and of the Americas may render it expedient, in the opinion of His Majesty's Government, to establish, for the protection and promotion of British Interests. The Salaries of the First Attachés, heretofore defrayed out of the Civil Contingencies, and which amount to £2,950 a year, are also included in this Estimate.

If by temporary vacancies or absences on leave, the whole sum included in this Estimate should not be taken, the surplus in each year will become a saving to the Public.

Your Committee have found, with satisfaction, from the letter of the Secretary of State of the 31st of August, 1831, that in deciding upon all future claims for Diplomatic Pensions, Lord Palmerston proposes to be strictly guided, as to the scale and limitation of such Pensions, and as to the eventual limitation of their amounts, by the recommendation contained in the Third Report of the Finance Committee of 1823; an extract from which is inserted, for more convenient reference, and for more precise information:—

"It appears further necessary to lay down more precise Regulations with respect to the Periods of Service, which shall in future give a title to such a provision. Your Committee therefore recommend,—

- "1st. THAT no Person whatever shall be entitled to receive a Diplomatic Pension until the expiration of 15 years from the date of his First Commission, nor unless he shall actually have served 10 years.
- "2nd. THAT no Person shall be entitled to a Pension of the First Class (£2000 a year), unless he shall have actually served 3 years as Ambassador at some Foreign Court.

"3rd. THAT Pensions to Envoys and Ministers Plenipotentiary at the greater Courts, shall not exceed £1,500 a year, and shall not be granted until after 5 years' residence in that capacity at a Foreign Court.

"4th. THAT Pensions to Envoys and Ministers Plenipotentiary at other Courts, and to Ministers, shall not exceed £1000 a year after a similar period of residence.

"5th. THAT Pensions in the remaining Class shall not exceed £800 a year, under the same conditions as to time of residence.

"It will be proper further to provide, that all Diplomatic Pensions shall be held subject to the condition of forfeiture in case of refusal to proceed to any Mission of equal or higher rank; and of suspension or abatement in any case in which the party receiving the Pension may be appointed to any other Office of profit under the Crown.

"In addition to these restrictions, the Committee were desirous of checking, by some positive rules, a practice which has prevailed to a considerable extent, of giving Retired Pensions to Diplomatic Servants having sufficient private fortunes; but finding, on mature consideration, great difficulty in laying down general regulations applicable to all cases, they think it better to content themselves with expressing their marked disapprobation of this practice: it could never, under any circumstances, be justifiable; but if the whole Fund be limited, as recommended, to £40,000, the Committee trust that this abuse will be prevented by a consideration of the evident injustice of burthening the Fund with improper charges of this description, to the prejudice of those who have equal claims with respect to their service, and better claims in respect to their pecuniary circumstances."

These Retired Diplomatic Pensions will remain to be provided for hereafter out of the Consolidated Fund.

one person for the 4th class; and that such pensions shall only be so granted under the following regulations and restrictions; (that is to say,)—

To any person who shall have served 10 years and upwards and under 11 years, an annual allowance 10-60ths of the annual salary and emoluments of his office.

For 11 years, and under 12 years, an annual allowance of 11-60ths of such salary and emoluments.

And in like manner a further addition to the annual allowance of 1-60th in respect of each additional year of such service, until the completion of a period of service of 40 years, when the annual allowance of 40-60ths may be granted; and no addition shall be made in respect of any service beyond 40 years.

PENSION ACTS, &c. (Civil Service and Consular.)

Application of Act to Persons already in the Civil Service, but without Prejudice to existing Rights.

III. Nothing herein contained shall interfere with the grant, to the officers and clerks who entered the public service prior to the 5th day of August, 1829, of such superannuation allowances as might hereafter have been granted to them under section 9 of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV. or shall prevent, restrict, or diminish, any other superannuation allowance, pension, gratuity, or compensation which, if this Act had not been passed, might hereafter have been granted to any person who shall have entered the public service before the passing of this Act, but, except as aforesaid, the provisions hereinafter contained, shall apply as well to persons who have already entered the public service, whether before or after the said 5th day of August, 1829, as to those who may hereafter enter the public service.

Provision for computing Amount of Superannuation to Persons holding professional and other special Offices.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury from time to time, by any order or warrant, to declare that for the due and efficient discharge of the duties of any office or class of offices to be specified in such order or warrant, professional or other peculiar qualifications, not ordinarily to be acquired in the public service, are required, and that it is for the interest of the public that persons should be appointed thereto at an age exceeding that at which public service ordinarily begins; and by the same or any other order or warrant, to direct that when any person now holding or who may hereafter be appointed to such office, or any of such class of offices, shall retire from the public service, a number of years not exceeding 20, to be specified in the said order or warrant, shall, in computing the amount of superannuation allowance which may be granted to him under the foregoing section of this Act, be added to the number of years during which he may have actually served, and also to direct that in respect of such office or class of offices, the period of service required to entitle the holders to superannuation may be a period less than 10 years, to be specified in the order or warrant; and also to direct that, in respect of such office or class of offices, the holder may be entitled to superannuation, though he may not hold his appointment directly from the Crown, and may not have entered the service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners: Provided always, that every order or warrant made under this enactment shall be laid before Parliament.

Allowances in cases of bodily Injury.

V. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person who, being the holder of an office in respect of which a superannuation allowance may be granted, but not having completed the period which would have entitled him to a superannuation allowance, is compelled to quit the public service by reason of severe bodily injury, occasioned, without his own default in the discharge of his public duty, a gratuity not exceeding 3 months pay for every 2 years of service, or a superannuation allowance not exceeding  $\frac{1}{10}$  10ths of the annual salary and emoluments of this office.

Power to Treasury to grant Gratuities in case of short Service.

VI. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person who, being the holder of an office in respect of which a superannuation allowance may be granted, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave the public service before the completion of the period which would entitle him to a superannuation allowance, such sum of money by way of gratuity as the said Commissioners may think proper, but so as that no such gratuity shall exceed the amount of one month's pay for each year of service.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances on Abolition of Offices.

VII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person retiring or removed from the public service in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the department to which he belongs, by which greater efficiency and economy can be effected, such special annual allowance by way of compensation, as on a full consideration of the circumstances of the case may seem to the said Commissioners to be a reasonable and just compensation for the loss of office; and if the compensation shall exceed the amount to which such person would have been entitled under the scale of superannuation provided by this Act, if 10 years were added to the number of years which he may have actually served, such allowance shall be granted by special minute, stating the special grounds for granting such allowance, which minute shall be laid before Parliament, and no such allowance shall exceed  $\frac{2}{3}$ ds of the salary and emoluments of the office.

Condition of Grant of full Superannuations to public Servants not Heads of Departments.

VIII. It shall not be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant the full amount of superannuation allowance which can be granted under this Act, to any person not being the head officer or one of the head officers of a department, unless upon production of a certificate (signed by the head officer of the department, or by two head officers, if there be more than one) that he has served with diligence and fidelity to the satisfaction of such head officer or officers; and in every case in which any superannuation allowance is granted, after the refusal of such certificate, the minute granting it shall state such refusal and the grounds on which the allowance is granted.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances for special Services, and for Demerits in individual Cases.

IX. Provided, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person any superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance of greater amount than the amount which might be awarded to him under the foregoing provisions, when special services rendered by such person, and requiring special reward, shall appear to them to justify such increase, but so that such allowance shall in no case exceed the salary and emoluments enjoyed by the grantee at the time of retirement, and the grounds of every such increase shall be stated in a minute of the Treasury, which shall be laid before Parliament; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant to any person any such allowance of less amount than otherwise would have been awarded to him where his defaults or demerit in relation to the public service appear to them to justify such diminution.

Evidence of Infirmity of Persons under Sixty.

X. It shall not be lawful to grant any superannuation allowance under the provisions of this Act to any person who shall be under 60 years, unless upon medical certificate to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Treasury that he is incapable, from infirmity of mind or body, to discharge the duties of his situation, and that such infirmity is likely to be permanent.

Persons superannuated under Sixty may be required to serve again.

XI. Every person to whom a superannuation or compensation allowance shall have been granted before he shall have attained the age of 60 years shall, until he has attained that age, be liable to be called upon to fill, in any part of Her Majesty's dominions in which he shall before have served, any public office or situation under the Crown for which his previous public services may render him eligible and if he shall decline, when called upon to do so, to take upon him such office or situation, or shall decline or neglect to execute the duties thereof satisfactorily, being in a competent state of health, he shall forfeit his right to the compensation or superannuation allowance which had been granted to him.

Persons to retain Right to Superannuation on Transfer to other Employment under the Crown.

XII. And whereas it shall be for the advantage of the public service that officers holding employments entitling them to superannuation allowances under this or other Acts shall be eligible for other public employments at home and abroad, without forfeiting their claims to such allowances:

PENSIONS TO SLAVE TRADE COMMISSIONERS.

[Extracted from Parliamentary Paper, No. 94, Session I, 1859.]

Treasury Minute, November 22, 1842.

Scale of Pensions, &c., for Mixed Commission Courts for Suppression of the Slave Trade.

READ letter from the Earl of Aberdeen, dated 15th instant, referring to the treaty concluded, on the 3rd July last between Great Britain and Portugal for the suppression of the slave trade, and calling their Lordships' attention to the necessity of providing for the expenditure to be incurred for the Commissions under Article 6 of that treaty for the trial of vessels charged with being concerned in the slave trade. The Commissions to be established are 4 in number: 2 of these in possessions belonging to Her Majesty, and 2 within the territories of Her most faithful Majesty.

The British possessions named for these Commissions are the Cape of Good Hope and Jamaica; the Portuguese possessions are Boa Vista, one of the Cape Verde Islands, and Loanda, in the province of Angola, on the western coast of Africa. The appointments to be made in these Commissions, on the part of Her Majesty, are as follows: a Commissioner, an arbitrator, and a registrar to reside at the Cape of Good Hope, and similar officers at Jamaica; a Commissioner and an arbitrator at Boa Vista, and similar officers at Loanda.

Lord Aberdeen submits that the salary to be given to the head Commissioner in each of those courts should be £1,200 a-year; that the salary to the arbitrator should be £800 a-year; and that the salary of the registrar should be £500 a-year. In respect to the pensions which may eventually be granted to the persons holding these situations, his Lordship submits that it will be advisable to adopt a modification of the system according to which pensions are now granted for services under Slave Trade Commissions. He proposes that a graduated scale should be adopted, under which a less sum should be given than has hitherto been granted for the shortest term required; but the sum allotted should eventually be increased in cases in which a more lengthened term of service has been completed, viz., that an officer, after 12 years' service actually completed at his post, may, on then retiring with the approval of Her Majesty's Secretary of State, be recommended for a pension not exceeding  $\frac{1}{3}$ ths of his salary; and that in case of his serving longer, the pension for which he may be recommended may be increased at the rate of  $\frac{1}{3}$ ths of his salary for such further 6 years' actual service at his post. Lord Aberdeen further proposes to follow the practice hitherto observed of giving to such functionary a free passage to his post; and that the sum allotted to each for his equipment should be equal in amount to 3 months' salary.

Write to Mr. Addington, that my Lords approve of the scale of salaries proposed by Lord Aberdeen for the officers to be appointed by Her Majesty in the Mixed Commissions to be established under the treaty between Great Britain and Portugal at the Cape of Good Hope, Jamaica, Boa Vista, and Loanda, and also of the proposed arrangements with regard to the retired allowances to be hereafter granted to those officers.

Their Lordships also concur with Lord Aberdeen, that the same arrangements with regard to pensions should be carried out in respect to appointments hereafter to be made at the Havana, Rio de Janeiro, and Surinam.

Their Lordships would further suggest, for Lord Aberdeen's consideration, whether the salaries of the officers at these last-mentioned stations may not be reduced, as vacancies occur, to the scale which has been resolved upon for the officers to be appointed to the new Mixed Commissions. Lord Aberdeen will no doubt concur in opinion with their Lordships, that the large increase which is about to take place in the expense of this department of the public service renders it particularly important that the entire establishment should be regulated in future with every practical attention to economy.

With regard to Sierra Leone, their Lordships admit that the unhealthiness of the climate renders it proper that the minimum period of service entitling officers to pensions at that place should be fixed lower than at other stations; but if this period were to be reduced to six years, with an increase at the rate of two-twelfths of the salary for each further three years' actual service on the spot, their Lordships are of opinion that the salaries at present allotted to the officers at that station ought to undergo a very considerable reduction.

Their Lordships see no objection to the course proposed with regard to the passages and outfit of the officers to be now appointed.

RETENTION OF MILITARY HALF-PAY BY PERSONS IN CIVIL SERVICE.

Act 28 & 29 Vict., c. 123.*

Extract of an Act to apply a Sum out of the Consolidated Fund and the Surplus of Ways and Means to the Service of the Year 1865, and to appropriate the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament.

Rules to be observed in the application of the Sums appropriated to Military Half-pay.

XXVIII. And as the sum of £324,359, being the proportion of the sum of £455,000 by this Act appropriated to the pay of reduced and retired officers which is applicable to the half-pay of officers of Her Majesty's forces, it is hereby enacted and declared that the rules hereafter prescribed shall be duly observed in the application of the said half-pay (that is to say),... That no person who shall, on or before the 28th day of July, 1828, have held any civil place or employment of profit under Her Majesty, or in the colonies or possessions of Her Majesty beyond the seas, or under any other Government, shall have or receive any part of the same for any time during which he shall hold any such civil place or employment of profit under Her Majesty, or in the colonies or possessions of Her Majesty beyond the seas, or under any other Government, except in cases in which the same shall not exceed three times the amount of the highest rate of half-pay attached to the rank in virtue of which he claims to receive half-pay or as hereinafter mentioned, nor in any such excepted cases unless Her Majesty's special approbation be signified as aforesaid, and the officer claiming the half-pay in pursuance of such approbation shall signify in his declaration the civil place or employment of profit which he may hold or have held as aforesaid; but if the net annual emoluments of such civil place or employment shall exceed three times the amount of half-pay as aforesaid, and shall fall short of four times that amount, then it shall be lawful for the paymaster-general, with Her Majesty's approbation, signified by the Secretary of State for War as aforesaid, to issue, on or before the 24th day of December, 1865, so much of the half-pay claimed by any such officer as shall, together with the net annual emoluments of the civil place or employment, be equal to four times the amount of such half-pay, and the officer claiming the half-pay in pursuance of such approbation shall specify in his declaration the civil place or employment of profit which he may have held as aforesaid, and the actual amount of the emoluments thereof, in such manner and form, and calculated up to such period or periods, as shall be required by the Secretary of State for War; but no person who, after the 28th day of July, 1828, has been appointed to any civil place or employment of profit (except in Her Majesty's household, under Her Majesty, or in the colonies or possessions of Her Majesty beyond the seas, or under any other Government, shall have or receive any part of the same for any time during which he shall hold any such civil place or employment of profit (except as aforesaid) under Her Majesty beyond the seas, or under any other Government, other than that of a barrack-master under the Secretary of State for War, who shall, under the restrictions before mentioned, be entitled to receive his half-pay:... Provided always, that from and after the 1st day of January, 1866, it shall be lawful for the paymaster-general to issue the half-pay or any portion thereof to any officer appointed to civil place or employment of profit under Her Majesty or any other Government, since the 28th day of July, 1828, if Her Majesty's pleasure to that effect be signified by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, through the Secretary of State for War, but such permission to be granted under the restrictions before mentioned.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING THE PAY, &c., OF ARTILLERY AND ENGINEER OFFICERS DURING THEIR EMPLOYMENT IN THE CIVIL SERVICE.

Extract from Treasury Minute dated October 19, 1855. (Parliamentary Paper, No. 58, Session 1863.)

1st. That when the services of an officer of Royal Artillery or Engineers may be required in a Civil Department, and absence from his regular duties can be allowed without inconvenience to the military service, the Commander-in-chief should grant him leave of absence for a period not exceeding six months; that in such case the officer should remain in regard to rank, pay, and progressive promotion, in the same position as he would have been if granted leave of absence under ordinary circumstances on account of health or private affairs. That the Civil Department employing such officer should make such addition to his military pay as will afford him adequate remuneration, when added to his pay, for the duty he may have to perform.

2nd. In every case and without exception, if the civil duty and employment lasts more than six months, and the officer prefer continuing in such employment instead of going back to his military duty, he should be made supernumerary in his corps; that he should nevertheless retain his rank with the progressive promotion in his corps to which his position may entitle him: but that he should draw no military pay whatever, the whole of his remuneration being provided by the Civil Department in which he may be employed; that if at the expiration of ten years, or earlier in case his civil employment should cease, he should return to his corps, he should in such case be considered as supernumerary, and fall into the first vacancy; but if after the expiration of ten years he should prefer remaining in his civil employment, he should then be placed on the retired list of the corps; that on such officer first becoming supernumerary, his place in his corps should be filled up by an effective officer, so as to keep the corps always complete and efficient.

REGULATIONS FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF BRITISH CHURCH AFFAIRS

At Foreign Ports and Places.

Made and issued by Her Majesty, through one of Her Principal Secretaries of State, under the authority of the Act 6 Geo. IV., Cap. 87.

I. It is the duty of every Consul of Her Majesty, residing at a foreign port where a British chapel is maintained under the Act 6 Geo. IV, cap 87, to pay strict attention to the provisions of that Act, an extract from which is hereunto prefixed; and all British subjects residing at such port, ought in like manner to make themselves acquainted with the same.

II. It will be the duty of Her Majesty's Consul, to see that the orders of the Secretary of State, in regard to the matters to which the above-mentioned Act applies, are obeyed. If they are not obeyed, the allowance granted by Her Majesty's Government will be discontinued.

III. Two general meetings of British residents are to be held in each year at the British Consulate. The Consul will summon those meetings by giving public notice thereof seven days at least before the day of meeting.

IV. The first annual meeting must be held early in the year, and at that Meeting a Committee should be appointed to superintend the temporal affairs of the Church. This Committee is to consist of three officers: namely, a treasurer and two trustees. These three officers are to be elected by a majority of the votes of persons present at such meetings.

V. The Committee will collect subscriptions, and will defray the ordinary expenses of the Church; will carry into effect the resolutions of the general meetings; will attend to any ordinary business connected with Church matters; will examine into any measure which it may be desirable for the General Meetings to adopt; and will report thereupon to the meetings. But such Committee is not empowered to make any regulations; to incur any extraordinary expenditure; nor to take any steps which these regulations do not specifically authorize, without having first obtained the sanction of a general meeting of British Residents; and no meetings, excepting the general meetings, held according to the provisions of the Act, will have the power of making rules and regulations, or of passing resolutions upon subjects connected with the temporal interests of the Church.

VI. At the second general meeting in each year, which should be held towards the close of the year, the Committee will render their accounts, and will make to the meeting a report on the affairs of the Church.

VII. Extraordinary general meetings may be summoned, and held at any time during the year, when the Consul may have any official communication to make to the residents, or when two or more subscribers, entitled to vote, shall make a requisition to the Consul to summon such a Meeting, and shall state the subjects which they may wish thereat to bring under consideration.

VIII. Any person who has subscribed 20*l.*, either in one sum, or by an aggregate of several sums, for the purposes mentioned in the Act, is entitled to be present and to vote at general meetings, during the first year after the 20*l.* shall have been so paid; and such person will become entitled to be present and to vote in each subsequent year for which he shall have made a further payment of 3*l.* But no person can be entitled to be present, or to vote at any such meeting, who shall not have actually made such payments before the notice for such meeting shall have been issued by the Consul, and who shall not have been domiciled in the place for six months. And in case no person shall have qualified himself to be present and to vote at general meetings, the management of the Church affairs will devolve entirely on the Consul, who will appoint a Committee to superintend the affairs of the Church under his direction.

IX. All British subjects resorting to or residing at a Foreign Port or Place, where a British Church Establishment is maintained under the Act 6 Geo. IV, cap. 87, have a right to subscribe towards the maintenance of such Church Establishment, and the Treasurer cannot refuse to receive such subscriptions.

X. General meetings have the power of making rules and regulations. All rules, regulations, proceedings, and minutes of general meetings, are to be signed by the Consul as Chairman of the meeting, and are to be entered in a register book which must be kept at the British Consulate. Any subscribers entitled to vote may have access to that register book.

XI. Copies of all such rules, regulations, proceedings and minutes, are to be transmitted by the Consul, to the Secretary of State, by the first convenient opportunity, for the approbation of Her Majesty.

XII. It is the duty of the Consul to see that the provisions of the Act of Parliament are strictly complied with; and for this purpose it is expressly enacted by the 15th section of the Act, that "no rule, order, or regulations, shall be of any force or effect unless or until the same shall be sanctioned and approved by the Consul." The proceedings of the Committee, therefore, as well as the proceedings of general meetings, must be sanctioned by the Consul. But as the Consul's instructions enjoin him to promote peace, harmony, and good-will amongst Her Majesty's subjects, he will not unnecessarily oppose any measure which the residents may be desirous of adopting. If he should judge such measure to be inexpedient, or contrary to the interests of Her Majesty's service, he should abstain from sanctioning the measure, and should refer it to the Secretary of State, whose decision thereupon will be final.

XIII. The Act of Parliament gives no power to the Residents to interfere with the spiritual administration of the Church; this must be left to the Chaplain, who is accountable to the Crown for his proceedings. On the other hand, the Act gives no power to the Chaplain to interfere in the temporal administration of Church affairs; these matters must be left to the general meetings of British residents.

XIV. Only one Chaplain, is to be attached to each Church to which an allowance is granted by Her Majesty's Government under the Act 6 Geo. IV, cap. 87.

XV. All Chaplains who are appointed under the Act, hold such their offices for and during the pleasure of the Crown, and no longer; and the pleasure of the Crown is to be signified to them by the Secretary of State.

XVI. Sacramental alms and oblations are to be distributed by the Chaplain, and are not to be entered in the Treasurer's accounts.

XVII. All Church accounts are to be kept in the currency of the country in which the chapel is situated; but when those accounts are submitted to Her Majesty's Government, they must be rendered in the form which is annexed to these regulations, and the equivalent of the principal items inserted in the accounts must be stated in British sterling money, at the average exchange of the year.

XVIII. Her Majesty's Government is authorized, by the Act of Parliament, to grant in each year, to British Church Establishments at foreign ports, sums not exceeding the amount actually raised during the year by voluntary subscription or by rate among Her Majesty's subjects resident at such ports. Her Majesty's Government will not, however, always grant the full amount authorized by the Act, but will grant only such amount as may be deemed expedient by the Secretary of State, after he shall have examined the Church accounts. Those accounts must be rendered to Her Majesty's Government as soon as possible after the 31st of December in each year.

XIX. The Consul and the Chaplain are to recollect that the Act 6 Geo. IV, cap. 87, which authorizes Her Majesty's Government to afford pecuniary assistance to British chapels at foreign ports, does not allude to, and therefore will not render valid, any marriage between British subjects or between a British subject and a foreigner, which may be solemnized in such chapels, unless such marriage be declared or deemed valid by some other law of the United Kingdom.

XX. The preceding Regulations respecting the management of Church affairs are also to be applied to the management of the affairs of British burial grounds provided at foreign ports under the provisions of the Act 6 Geo. IV, c. 87. The affairs of the burial ground should, however, be kept distinct from the Church affairs. The annual expense of maintaining such burial grounds in order should be paid by fees on interments; and whenever these fees produce a surplus beyond the expenses, such surplus must be in British Government or other public sufficient security in the joint names of the Consul and of two Trustees; and no portion of such surplus can be applied to any other purposes than the repairs of the burial ground, without the previous sanction of the Secretary of State, signified through the Consul. The interests on money so invested should annually be received, and should be carried to the credit of the burial ground fund; and a report of the state of this fund, together with the burial ground accounts, must be sent off to the Secretary of State, as soon as possible after the 31st of December in each year.

XXI. These Regulations are to be recorded in the office of the Consul and shall be of full force, effect, and authority over all Her Majesty's subjects resident at

[For §§ X to XV relating to the support of Churches, Chapels, &c., abroad, see p. 203.]

THIS WORLD-RENOUNDED MEDICINE, which has obtained such celebrity in all parts of the globe, for curing the above-named complaints and other affections of the Chest and Pulmonary Organs, is strongly recommended to all suffering from any of the above disorders, as One Trial will be sufficient to prove their undoubted efficacy, being frequently used under the recommendation of the most eminent of the faculty.

VALUABLE TESTIMONIAL.

CURE OF ASTHMA OF SEVERAL YEARS' STANDING.

SIR.—Having been troubled with asthma for several years, I could find no relief from any medicines whatever, until I was induced about two years ago to try a box of your valuable lozenges, and found such relief from them that I am determined for the future never to be without a box of them in the house, and will do all in my power to recommend them to my friends.

If you consider the above testimonial of any advantage, you are quite at liberty to make what use of it you please.

Thomas Keating, Esq.

Caiuscross, near Stroud, Gloucestershire.

I am, Sir, your most obliged Servant,
W. J. TRIGG.

Prepared and sold in Boxes, 1s. 1½d., and Tins, 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 10s. 6d. each, by THOMAS KEATING, Chemist, &c., 79, St. Paul's Churchyard, London. Sold retail by all Druggists and Patent Medicine Vendors in the world.

N.B.—To prevent spurious imitations, please to observe that the words "KEATING'S COUGH LOZENGES" are engraven on the Government Stamp of each box, without which none are genuine.

KEATING'S PERSIAN INSECT DESTROYING POWDER.

For which a Prize Medal was awarded to the Producer at the International Exhibition, 1862.

This Powder is quite harmless to animal life, but is unrivalled in destroying Fleas, Bugs, Flies, Cockroaches, Beetles, Gnats, Mosquitos, Moths in furs, and every other species of insect.

SPORTSMEN will find this an invaluable remedy for destroying FLEAS in THEIR DOGS, as also Ladies for their Pet Dogs. Being the Original Importer of this now invaluable article, which has found so great a sale that it has tempted others to vend a so-called article, the public are therefore cautioned to observe that the packets of the genuine powder bear the autograph of THOMAS KEATING.

Sold in packets, 1s., 2s. 6d., and 4s. 6d. each, or post free for 14 or 36 postage stamps, by THOMAS KEATING, Chemist, 79, St. Paul's Churchyard, London, E.C.

Sir Bernard Burke's (Ulster King of Arms) Genealogical and Heraldic Dictionary of the Peerage and Baronetage of the British Empire. Complete in one volume, royal 8vo., corrected to the present time, price 38s.

"The first authority on all questions affecting the aristocracy."—Globe. "Beyond comparison with any other books of the same class, and perfect of its kind."—Examiner. "No one can take up this huge volume without seeing that it is a book of superior merit and value, and such as not one person in a thousand could venture upon accomplishing."—Observer. "Ulster King of Arms presents us annually with a Peerage and Baronetage, which may be classed among the institutions of the country"—Daily Telegraph. "A Peerage like this is really a portion of the historic literature of the country, and should be studied by everybody."—Illus. Lon. News. "As a Book of Reference for Lawyers it is invaluable. They can find nowhere else such reliable and complete Pedigrees, and such accurate information of the families of their most distinguished clients. There is no less troublesome or more interesting way of acquiring historical knowledge than by glancing over the pages of such a Peerage as that of Sir Bernard Burkes."—Solicitors' Journal and Reporter

Arms) Genealogical and Heraldic Dictionary of the Landed Gentry of Great Britain and Ireland. Fourth Edition, complete in one volume. Bound in cloth, £2 16s., uniform with the Peerage and Baronetage. Or in Parts, viz., Part I (A to J), 25s. ; Part II (K to Z, and Supplement), 30s.

"A work of this kind is of a national value. Its utility is not merely temporary, but it will exist and be acknowledged as long as the families, whose names and genealogies are recorded in it, continue to form an integral portion of the English constitution."—Post. "The whole forms a fine and full account of the Gentry of these realms—of that class 'who,' says Sir Bernard in his preface, 'possess, though undistinguished by hereditary titles, an undeniable right, from antiquity of race, extent of property, and brilliancy of achievements, to take foremost rank among the lesser nobility of Europe.'"—Illus. Lon. News.

The Foreign Office List, forming a complete British Diplomatic and Consular Handbook, exhibiting the rank, standing, and various services of every person employed in the Foreign Office, the Diplomatic Corps, and the Consular Body. Also Regulations respecting Examinations, Passports, Foreign Orders, &c. With Maps, showing where Her Majesty's Ambassadors, Ministers, Consuls, and others, are resident abroad; together with a List of Foreign Diplomatic and Consular Representatives within the Queen's Dominions. Compiled by EDWARD HERTSLET, Librarian and Keeper of the Papers, Foreign Office. New Edition, corrected to the present time. Bound in cloth, price 5s.

"The Foreign Office List gives the most careful notices of every person depending on, or in any way connected with, the Foreign Office, from the Minister to the youngest supernumerary clerk in his department, and from the Ambassador to the Cabinet Messenger. It moreover enlivens the dull monotony of official detail with biographical notices of the functionaries whose names it records. It is to be found in all the Chancelleries abroad; no Attaché of a Mission great or small, thinks his library complete without it; and it is one of the first objects that attracts the eye of the British traveller as he waits for his passport visa in a Consul's office." Times (from our own Correspondent).

"The Editors possess the fullest means of obtaining the fullest information, and the general design is extremely good."—Spectator, April 15, 1865.

"Among other interesting features is a list of persons now living, who hold, or have held any important Colonial Office. It is a most useful work."—South Australian Register.

His practice on field-work and engineering surveying generally, is of itself a volume of instruction to the young practitioner, and, without so entering into abstruse formulæ and mathematical calculations, so as to make the work puzzling, it contains all that is required to render it, not only a source of instruction, but also a most excellent work of reference."— * * * * Mining Journal.

Notes on Nursing: What it is, and what it is not. BY FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE. Demy 8vo., limp cloth, price 2s.

We have never read any book on any subject on which so much is said, and said so well in a shorter space. * * * There will be a great neglect of duty if Miss Nightingale's admirable work is not so carefully studied that it becomes, in fact, the manual of every sick room."—Times. "These 'Notes' are addressed to women, and every woman in the country ought to read them."—Daily News. "The work is but an inexpensive pamphlet, not costing the price of one bottle of medicine, but it is destined, we trust, to reduce the doctors' bills in many families. * * * To every class, from the highest to the lowest, these 'Notes' are addressed."—Examiner. "Every father of a family should change his silver for these 'Notes' (their price is fixed so moderately he need not change his gold for them), and every member of a family should both hear and try to profit by them. It is not too much to say that no domestic library can be complete without them; and considering the doctors' bills they probably will save him, every Paterfamilias who stupidly neglects to get these 'Notes' will deserve to get a stress laid on his last Latin syllable."—Punch. "We wish it may find its way not only into every hospital and workhouse, but into every school and nursery in the kingdom."—Saturday Review.

Evelina; or, the History of a Young

Lady's entrance into the World. By MISS BURNBY (afterwards Madame D'Arblay). New Edition, with a frontispiece, price 3s.

"Fielding never wrote so well—never wrote equal to this book; it is a better picture of life and manners than is to be found anywhere in Fielding."—Dr. Johnson. "I am proud of it: I am proud that a work so commended should be a woman's."—Mrs. Montagu. "Evelina became at once a fashionable novel."—Mrs. Barbauld. "Scholars and Statesmen who contemptuously abandoned the crowd of Romances to Miss Lydia Languish and Miss Sukey Saunter were not ashamed to own that they could not tear themselves away from Evelina."—Lord Macaulay.

Mr. Froude is no common writer—his style is vivid and emphatic—he touches some of the most secret springs of the heart's passions—he enchains our sympathies."—John Bull. "The work shows evidence of a vigorous and cultivated understanding. 'The Spirit's Trials' is a tale of considerable interest. The characters are felicitously drawn."—Morning Post.

"Chollerton is a religious tale—the character natural, the style easy, and rather elegant."—Spectator. "Nearly all the points mooted within the last year or two are very skilfully introduced, and are judiciously treated in this volume. The conversations are animated and clever—the plot is good—the interest never flags. We venture to predict that it will prove one of the most popular volumes of its species."—English Churchman. "It is indeed an interesting tale; and we recommend it to our readers."—Oxford Herald.

A. & F. PEAR'S TRANSPARENT SHAVING STICK,

MANUFACTURED FROM THEIR CELEBRATED TRANSPARENT SOAP,

SECURES

COMFORT and CLEANLINESS in SHAVING.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.

With the brush moisten the beard with hot or cold water, then rub the end of the Stick over it, after which work the lather up with your brush moderately wet, when you will instantly produce an agreeable creamy lather, which will not dry on the face.

The exceeding durability and portability of Pears's Transparent Shaving Stick, together with its use, dispensing with the disagreeable Shaving Dish, particularly recommends it to gentlemen of the Army and Navy, and for travelling purposes generally.

Price in Strong Case, 1s., 1s. 6d., and 2s. 6d. each.

To be obtained of all respectable Chemists and Perfumers in Town and Country, or of the Inventors.

A. & F. PEAR'S GENUINE TRANSPARENT SOAP,

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY.

Prize Medals, International Exhibitions, 1851 and 1862.

It is of vital importance that an article of such constant consumption for Toilet purposes as Soap should be free from any admixture of an injurious nature, and yet, perhaps, there is nothing which is so commonly and extensively adulterated; to this fact the "Times" has called Public attention, showing that in many instances even the most poisonous ingredients are introduced for colouring or other purposes.

It is also essential that Soap for personal use should be considerably more refined than that used for common household purposes, which contains a strong caustic alkali, exceedingly injurious and destructive to the delicately organized skin, and yet this—coloured and perfumed—is what is generally sold to the public as Toilet Soap.

PEAR'S GENUINE TRANSPARENT SOAP,

Which has had 60 years public approval, undergoes a process in its manufacture, which entirely removes all the corrosive alkali (so injurious), its colour being acquired by age only. Its perfume has also been studied so as to make it most agreeable, and not in any way injurious. The mild detergent properties of this Soap, its absolute purity, and the care bestowed on its manufacture throughout, have induced many Physicians to recommend it in Skin Diseases, as well as for Nursery use.

Another excellence of this Soap is, that it may be used with either HARD or SOFT WATER, a quality which renders it extremely agreeable to gentlemen of the ARMY and NAVY, or families travelling to other countries, change of climate never in the least diminishing its properties.

Sold in square Cakes and Tablets, price 1s. and 1s. 6d. each; and large square Cakes and Tablets, perfumed with ORANGE or ROSE, price 2s. 6d. each.

To be had of most respectable Perfumers and Chemists throughout the world, or of the Inventors, as above,
